OVERVIEW

Gregory is a discovery attorney with Troutman eMerge, resident in the Philadelphia office.

Gregory has worked on electronic discovery projects in complex multidistrict litigation, coordinated state proceedings and government investigations for product liability matters, as well as bankruptcy, labor and securities cases. He also has significant experience with privilege review, privacy issues, and witness preparation, and has helped manage discovery projects at the initial review, quality control and production stages.

Gregory handles high-quality legal services for clients by using e-discovery technologies that improve and protect client/attorney confidentiality and communication. Gregory also identifies and searches for documentation essential for motion practice and deposition preparation.
