OVERVIEW

Tianhao is a member of the firm's Health Care + Life Sciences industry group. He advises bioscience, pharmaceutical, health care, medtech, industrial, and chemical companies, as well as investment and fund vehicles, on cross-border corporate transactions, including inbound investment and joint ventures involving Chinese- and Hong Kong-headquartered companies and their U.S. subsidiaries. He also advises on trade remedies, customs and import compliance and CFIUS-adjacent issues. In addition, he handles IP-related matters for clients in these industries, including patent disputes, trademark and copyright infringement, and trademark portfolio acquisition. Before becoming a lawyer, Tianhao interned at the New York State Supreme Court.
