Russell R. Eggert

Retired Partner

OVERVIEW

For more than four decades, Russ represented companies, individuals, trade associations and public agencies in enforcement actions, both public and private, involving every major federal environmental statute and many of their state and local counterparts. He defended clients in large mass tort and class action lawsuits. Russ also advised clients on a broad range of environmental compliance and due diligence projects.

©2026 Troutman Pepper Locke