

WEB SEMINAR SERIES

Washington Legal Foundation

Multi-State Investigations and Suits: How to Address the Expanding Authority and Ambition of State Attorneys General

FEATURING:

ASHLEY L. TAYLOR JR.

Troutman Sanders LLP

Former Deputy Attorney General
Commonwealth of Virginia

WILLIAM H. HURD

Troutman Sanders LLP

Former Deputy Attorney General and Former Solicitor General,
Commonwealth of Virginia

LIVE WEBCAST:

Friday, March 27, 2009

10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. EST

<http://www.wlf.org>

Event Highlights:

- Unique challenges posed by state attorneys general when they act alone, and in concert.
- Lessons learned from our speakers' involvement in advancing and defending against state AG actions.
- Areas of current interest to state AGs, including new federal laws which empower state enforcement.
- Impact of national economic crisis and federal stimulus efforts on state attorneys general's agendas.

Interact with our speakers by submitting your questions during the program to *interactive@wlf.org

Washington Legal Foundation

Advocate for freedom and justice®
2009 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036
202.588.0302

WLF's Web Seminar Series presents viewers with live webcast analysis and commentary by noted legal experts on timely developments in law and public policy. These hour-long presentations will also be conveniently archived and available on WLF's website, www.wlf.org.