

INTREXON CORPORATION
COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF OKANAGAN SPECIALTY
FRUITS INC.

► CLOSING DATE: APRIL 17, 2015

Intrexon Corporation (Intrexon) completed its acquisition of Okanagan Specialty Fruits Inc. (OSF) by way of statutory plan of arrangement pursuant to which a wholly-owned subsidiary of Intrexon acquired all the securities of OSF for US$41 million.

OSF shareholders received US$31 million in Intrexon common stock and US$10 million in upfront cash, subject to certain escrow hold-back.

Intrexon Corporation is a leader in synthetic biology focused on collaborating with companies in health, food, energy, environment and consumer sectors. OSF is the pioneering agricultural company behind the Arctic[®]-apple, the world's first non-browning apple, based in Summerland, British Columbia.

Intrexon was represented in-house by Chief Legal Officer, Donald Lehr and Vice-President, Associate General Counsel and Chief M&A Counsel, Christian Ulrich and by Canadian counsel, Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy LLP, with a team led by Hector MacKay-Dunn, QC and including Denise Nawata, Lisa Andrews and Michael Rawluk (corporate and securities); Thom Ciz (tax) and Teresa Tomchak (securities regulatory). Canadian tax counsel was provided to Intrexon by Borden Ladner Gervais LLP, with a team led by Richard Bennett and Kim Maguire, and Intrexon was also represented by US counsel Troutman Sanders LLP, with a team led by John Owen Gwathmey and including David Meyers, Shona Smith, Jonathan Downs and Doug Boyle (corporate and securities).

OSF was represented by Owen Bird Law Corporation, with a team co-led by Patrick Haberl and Edie Ryan, and including Jeffrey Lightfoot and Carl Pines (corporate and securities) and Paul Brackstone (securities regulatory).

RENEWABLE ENERGY
TRUST ACQUIRES THREE POWER PLANTS FROM CANADIAN SOLAR

► CLOSING DATE: MARCH 30, 2015

On March 30, 2015, a subsidiary of Renewable Energy Trust Capital, Inc. acquired CityLights solar power project, a 10-megawatt AC solar power plant, from CSI Solar Project 16 Inc., a subsidiary of Canadian Solar Inc. Two other 10-megawatt AC solar power plants, DiscoveryLight and FotoLight, were acquired by the same subsidiary on December 31, 2014. The acquisitions were financed through a hybrid credit and note purchase arrangement arranged by Norddeutsche Landesbank Girozentrale, New York Branch and Babson Capital Management LLC.

Renewable Energy Trust was represented in Canada, in respect of the acquisition, by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP with a team consisting of Ken Pearce, Andrew Thompson, Leslie Wong and Yoni Grundland (corporate), Daniel Kofman (real estate) and Kathleen Penny and Ian Caines (tax) and in respect of the financing by Stikeman Elliott LLP with a team consisting of Eric Bremermann, Peter Hamilton and Matt Cameron. Renewable Energy Trust was represented in the US by Troutman Sanders LLP with a team consisting of John Leonti and Christine Byrnes.

Canadian Solar was represented by Fogler, Rubinoff LLP with a team consisting of Michael Slan, Karen Rosen, Brian Gosse, Yadira Flores and Sabrina Nardone (corporate and banking) and Daliah Szechtman (real estate).

The lenders were represented in Canada by Torys LLP with a team consisting of Scott Kraag, Adrienne Love and Olga Matyash (banking) and Andy Gibbons (real estate) and in the US by Latham & Watkins LLP, with a team consisting of John Sachs, David Penna, Liz Matthew and Eric Merrill.