Recorded on : May 16, 2022

[Tracey Diamond]

What do Emily in Paris, Moneyball, Squid Games, and Severance have in common? Find out in our new podcast, Hiring to Firing, where we focus on employment issues raised by popular TV shows and movies, pop culture and the news.

I'm Tracey Diamond, a Partner with Troutman Pepper. I practice in the areas of labor and employment law, human resources counseling, and employment litigation. I was previously General Counsel at a national retail chain and Director of Human Resources and Operations for a large non-profit. I'm also the editor of Troutman Pepper's Hiring to Firing blog, your go-to resource for all things hiring to firing.

[Evan Gibbs]

I'm Evan Gibbs, also a Partner at Troutman Pepper. I investigate and litigate corporate espionage, trade secret and non-compete matters. I've been writing about legal issues in the context of popular culture for several years and am now excited to be talking about them.
