Michael Lowe, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Health Sciences Practice Group, was profiled in the September 22, 2022 The Legal Intelligencer article, "20-Year Federal Prosecutor Joins Troutman Pepper as Health Sciences Litigator."

"When I looked at the health sciences practice group, I found Troutman's had a really broad client base. Out of all the places to work, this had a lot of the things I was looking for. It had the approach that they're not just looking to deliver client value. They want to make sure they have the attorneys who are ready, willing and able to take a case to trial.

When you're working as a federal prosecutor doing high-level cases for as long as I have, you understand how the cases are investigated and the risks that might be taken by persons or entities that could get them on the radar with the federal government. Coming out of that world, I have perspective from the inside about how cases are built.
