In this episode, Brooke Conkle and Chris Capurso, attorneys in the firm's Consumer Financial Services Practice Group, are joined by Kim Phan, a partner in the firm's Privacy and Cyber Practice Group. They delve into the latest trends in privacy and their significant impact on the auto finance industry. The discussion covers the evolving landscape of data security, the implications of connected cars and the Internet of Things, and the challenges and opportunities presented by AI. Kim also shares insights on how recent legislative changes and the new administration may shape the future of privacy regulations. Tune in for a comprehensive analysis of these critical issues and their potential ramifications for the auto finance sector.
