SPEAKERS

Glenn G. Pudelka

Thursday, March 6 • 9:45 – 10:45 a.m. ET

On March 6, Glenn Pudelka is a speaker at the Intellectual Property Owners Association's (IPO) 2025 Spring Summit on the panel, "Recent Updates on AI and IP (Patent and Copyright)." This discussion will explore how AI is transforming industries by enabling innovative product development and customized solutions, while also posing significant challenges for intellectual property law and policy. The panelists will explore issues such as defining AI-generated inventions, allocating ownership, and balancing incentives, providing a comprehensive overview of the current state of AI and IP.
