Troutman Pepper Locke partner Michael Lowe will be a co-panelist with Professor Maureen A. Weston from the Pepperdine Caruso School of Law at the 43rd Annual California Eastern District Conference on Sunday, October 26.

Their session, entitled “The Future of College Athletics: On the Court and in the Courts,” will discuss the evolving landscape of college athletics, focusing on the history and current status of name, image, and likeness (NIL) compensation for athletes. The panel will also cover ongoing litigation involving the NCAA, such as the House v. NCAA settlement, and explore related legal issues, including direct pay to athletes and compliance with Title IX.
