Andrew Medeiros, Director of Troutman Pepper's Innovation Solutions, was quoted in the September 8, 2023 Law.com article, "6 Law Firms That Have Launched Internal Generative AI-Powered Chatbots."

Additionally, the firm monitors the prompts attorneys put into Athena to ensure that they are within the designated use cases, Andrew Medeiros, the firm's director of innovation solutions, said. "Athena, and [the] generative AI that we have rolled out, at this point, cannot be used for legal research, full stop. That's not its capability right now," he explained. "[We are] monitoring the logs [of attorney prompts], making sure that the use case are consistent with [our policies] and communicating that over and over to our attorneys."
