

Press Coverage | June 2, 2021

A Great Dissenter: Justice Henry E. Needham Is Often Vindicated by the State Supreme Court

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Elizabeth Holt Andrews

Elizabeth Holt Andrews, counsel at Troutman Pepper, was quoted in the April 14, 2021 Daily Journal article, “A Great Dissenter: Justice Henry E. Needham Is Often Vindicated by the State Supreme Court.” The article discusses First District Court of Appeal Justice Henry E. Needham, Jr.

Elizabeth Holt Andrews, counsel at Troutman Pepper in San Francisco, has appeared before Needham in several cases and said in an email that he is “noteworthy for his calm and patient judicial demeanor on the bench.”

“Particularly with respect to parties appearing in propria persona, who are navigating the appellate courts without the benefit of counsel, he is outstandingly patient, careful, and respectful during oral argument,” she added.