March 31 – April 2, 2022

Join Troutman Pepper at the ABA Business Law Section Hybrid Spring Meeting on March 31-April 2. Participants can join virtually or in-person at the Hyatt Regency Atlanta. Sponsored by our Finance + Restructuring and White Collar Litigation + Investigations practice groups. Partners Kay Kress and Mark Furletti will be participating in the meeting as session panelists. The deadline to register is Friday, March 18.

Join business law professionals from around the world for three days of learning, connecting, and collaborating. Attend the meeting to:

- View high-quality CLE programs developed by business law experts with interactive Q&A opportunities. Connect with a community of business law thought leaders at committee and subcommittee meetings that provide substantive discussions covering emerging business law trends or discussions about the work of the group, some of which feature exciting guest speakers.
- Meet and network with other business law professionals from around the world.
- Access all meeting content, during and after the meeting has ended, including on-demand CLE and program materials.
- The hybrid meeting is designed for every member—young lawyers, in-house counsel, solo practitioners, judges, professors, private practitioners, international attorneys, law students, and all other business law professionals.

The ABA will seek 18 hours of CLE credit in 60-minute states, and 21.6 hours of CLE credit for this program in 50-minute states. Including 4 hours of Ethics and Professional Responsibility CLE credit in 60-minute states and 4.8 hours of CLE credit in 50-minute states. Credit hours are estimated and are subject to each state's approval and credit rounding rules. Please visit the program website for program CLE details or visit general CLE information at the ABA.

*Florida Bar regulators have stated that attorneys will not receive Florida credit for any ABA program, even if they self-apply.

For more information, visit the ABA's MCLE page for general information on CLE at the ABA.
