ACC CLE – “I Don’t Have Time To Read This Lease – Where Should My Focus Be?”

SPEAKERS

G. Lee Cory, Jr.

Thursday, December 9 • 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. ET

This interactive discussion is intended to focus attendees on the key issues in commercial leases from the corporate counsel’s perspective, under the assumption that the corporate counsel is not the primary lease negotiator. It is the presenter’s hope that the topics introduced – operating expense pass throughs, assignment and sublet provisions, and work letter issues, to name a few – will prompt questions from attendees and discussions about “real life examples” of commercial lease issues that keep corporate counsel up at night.”
