American Bar Association: 36th National Institute on White Collar Crime

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Allison O'Neil

Allison O'Neil will speak at the ABA's 36th National Institute on White Collar Crime, October 27-29, 2021. Allison's session is on October 27 and will cover new developments and trends in the Northeast to better inform attorneys of strategies and arguments used in litigating white collar cases.

During this year's conference, each panel will particularly focus on the impact of COVID-19 on the various substantive areas, including government initiatives and investigations to combat fraud related to the virus and new practices resulting from the virus. In addition, there will be a panel on the impact of COVID-19 on the white collar practice, including the conduct of investigations by prosecutors and grand jury, and the handling of motions practice and trials.
