

American Bar Association Recognizes Troutman Pepper Locke for Pro Bono Contributions

Troutman Pepper Locke has been recognized by the American Bar Association (ABA) Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service as an ABA Free Legal Answers 2025 Pro Bono Leader for its outstanding pro bono service.

In 2025, Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys answered more than 75 civil legal questions through the ABA Free Legal Answers portal, helping low-income individuals and families address critical civil legal issues. This recognition reflects the firm's continued commitment to pro bono service and to making a meaningful difference in the communities it serves.

ABA Free Legal Answers is an online virtual legal clinic through which income-eligible clients can post civil legal questions to be answered by pro bono attorneys in their jurisdiction. By participating in this program, Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys help expand access to justice for those who might otherwise be unable to obtain legal assistance.

Each year, Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys dedicate thousands of pro bono hours in support of nonprofits, military veterans, children, the wrongfully convicted, civil rights and social justice initiatives, and many other causes. Learn more at troutman.com/pro-bono.
