Antitrust Economics – The Building Blocks

SPEAKERS

Robert L. Hickok | Daniel J. Boland

---

Panelist Loren Smith of Brattle Group, Robert Hickok of Troutman Pepper, and Daniel Boland of Troutman Pepper will provide an overview of foundational economic principles relevant to antitrust law. It will also explore the economic and econometric tools utilized in litigating antitrust and competition matters and provide practical advice on how lawyers and economists can coordinate to most effectively develop and present economic evidence when litigating antitrust issues.

The training is approved for MCLE credit in California, Illinois, New Jersey (through reciprocity), New York, and Pennsylvania. Credit for other jurisdictions may be available upon request. Please email clemanagement@troutman.com to register for the program.
