Nina Huerta is speaking at the American Property Casualty Insurance Association's (APCIA) Western Regional General Counsel Conference on July 30, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. Their topic, "Update on COVID-19 Employment Issues," will provide an overview of the COVID-19 pandemic's ongoing impact on the operation of businesses and related employment law issues.

The Western Regional General Counsel Conference is series of online sessions that will provide the latest updates on a host of issues relevant to the legal community, focusing on the tectonic shifts generated by COVID-19, including employment issues. The conference will also provide sessions on effectively utilizing the maxims of jurisprudence, class action cases, and an appellate update. For additional information, click here.
