Unlike most patent systems around the world, in the United States parties have the opportunity to use numerous specialty proceedings at the United States Patent & Trademark Office to strengthen their own issued patents, to challenge the validity of third party patents, and to determine ownership of inventions. This program will detail these specialty proceedings, discuss their pros and cons, and outline best strategies to use them to maximize client goals.

The seminar will be available both in-person and via a live webinar.
