Misha Tseytlin and Tim McHugh, attorneys with Troutman Pepper, were quoted in the October 12, 2023 Law360 article, "Army Vet Tells Justices VA Misread Post-9/11 Benefits Law."

Troutman Pepper attorneys Misha Tseytlin and Timothy McHugh, who represent Rudisill, said in a joint statement Thursday they look forward to oral argument on Nov. 8.

"While we have provided the court with a straightforward interpretation of the Post-9/11 GI Bill that is grounded in the statutory text and context, the Department of Veterans Affairs has put forward an increasingly convoluted rewriting of the statutory text," the attorneys said.
