These days, credit reporting is the most volatile area within the accounts receivable management industry. Between increased regulatory scrutiny and changes from the credit reporting agencies, credit reporting is a minefield of potential legal and compliance challenges. To help navigate those challenges, AccountsRecovery.net is proud to bring you Ask The Credit Reporting Expert. This monthly Q&A session, sponsored by Palinode, offers you the chance to get all your credit reporting questions answered, and hear answers to questions you might not have thought of yet.
