Bank director training and education is playing an increasingly important role in the success of today's and tomorrow's top-performing financial services institutions. Regardless of whether you have served on a board for years or are just starting out, bank directors today have an extraordinary need for information and education about this increasingly complex industry. In September, both inside and outside bank directors, chair of the board, CEOs, and senior management who regularly interact with a bank's board will safely meet in Nashville to access the latest and most critical education and bank training from leading experts to equip them with the knowledge needed to address the issues and challenges facing them in today's evolving industry.

Through a curriculum developed by industry experts, the Bank Board Training Forum provides attendees with foundational knowledge, top strategies, and the latest information on best practices in all of the critical areas that bank directors must understand, including:

- Risk management and auditing issues,
- Compensation and talent,
- Corporate governance,
- Strategic planning, and
- Industry regulations.

In addition, the Bank Board Training Forum includes exclusive Bank CEO, Chair of the Board, and Lead Director Peer Exchanges that allow participants leading their institutions the opportunity to meet with peers from across the US to address challenging issues and emerging opportunities in a closed-door, off-the-record setting.

Join Troutman Pepper attorneys Greg Parisi and Shelli Willis on Monday, September 13 from 11:20 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. for a Board Members Only breakout session discussing the “ESG Roadmap: Requirements, Best Practices and Trends.” During this session, Greg and Shelli will discuss how key stakeholders continue to emphasize environmental, social and governance (ESG) practices, and disclosures when evaluating financial institutions.
