Battery Chemistry's AI Era

SPEAKERS

William R. Derasmo

---

Host Bill Derasmo sits down with ZincFive's vice president of global sales and product management, Brandon Smith, to talk about why nickel-zinc battery chemistry is built for the AI era. With a career that spans oil and gas, UPS systems, and now nickel-zinc, Brandon explains why nickel-zinc batteries are turning heads as a safer alternative to lithium-ion and how they're set to reshape backup power for AI-driven data centers.
