Diane Romza-Kutz of Troutman Sanders will lead a workshop on how to develop a plan to correctly position assets for a deal and how such a plan can lead to a successful partnership. The title of the program is The Management of Assets: How to Position a Project to Attract a Deal. Panelists will include Gordon McCauley of Allon Therapeutics, Graeme Martin of Takeda Research Investment and Michael Yeomans of Bayer Schering Pharma in an examination of how to position an asset to attract an ideal partner.
