BIO-Europe

SPEAKERS

Diane J. Romza-Kutz

Troutman Sanders is proud to sponsor and present at this year's BIO-Europe conference. BIO-Europe is the world's largest stand-alone partnering conference for professionals and executives in the biotechnology industry. Click here for more information about the upcoming conference.

Diane Romza-Kutz of Troutman Sanders will lead a workshop on the challenges for partnerships during the recent global economic crisis and on how new internal business structures can foster growth and change through renegotiation. Panelists include Lesley Stolz of Sutro Biopharma, Simon Dew of Astellas Pharma Europe, Brad Prosek of Cubist Pharmaceuticals and James Manuso of SuperGen. The title of the program is Creating and Maintaining Partnerships in Challenging Times: Adapting for Success.
