BioPharm America 2009

SPEAKERS

Diane J. Romza-Kutz

Troutman Sanders was proud to sponsor and present at this year's BioPharm America conference. BioPharm America provides biotech industry professionals the opportunity to meet with biotech and pharma executives from around the globe and establishes a platform for these professionals and executives to enter into strategic relationships. It also provides biotech and pharma executives the opportunity to share their knowledge and opinions on important industry issues.

Diane Romza-Kutz, a partner in the firm's Chicago office, moderated a panel discussion on issues that typically arise between parties once a deal is signed. The program was titled: Building Successful Alliances: How to Live Happily Ever After.
