Troutman Pepper Locke's Shawn Zovod, Melissa Horne, Jason Langford, Tim Carstedt, and Liz Glusman's article, "CARB Releases List of Entities Potentially Subject to Climate Disclosure Requirements," was quoted in the October 16, 2025 Utility Dive article, "California Delays Rulemaking Timeline for Climate Disclosure Laws to 2026."

The law firm Troutman Pepper Locke said in a note that while the list was intended to provide clarity, it was "generating surprise and confusion among the regulated (and non-regulated) community, some of whom expected to find themselves on the list, and others who did not."
