

California Seeks Collaboration From the Global Privacy Frontier

WRITTEN BY

David J. Navetta | Michael Yaghi | Lauren H. Geiser

Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys assess California's collaboration with other foreign governments on promoting privacy rights and what this means for the future of data protection worldwide.

The California Privacy Protection Agency recently announced that it signed a declaration of cooperation on privacy protections or collaboration with the UK Information Commissioner's Office, its latest collaboration with a foreign government.

Click here to read the full article on Bloomberg Law.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Privacy + Cyber
- State Attorneys General
- Technology