Chris Willis, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Consumer Financial Services Practice Group, was quoted in the April 12, 2022 American Banker article, "CFPB Says TransUnion, Former Executive Repeatedly Broke Law."

The suit against Danaher signals a "major shift" toward targeting executives at big companies after the bureau has preferred to bring cases against those at smaller firms in the past, said Chris Willis, a partner at Troutman Pepper.

"It is likely intended as – and should be seen as – a warning to executives in consumer financial services companies," Willis said of the suit against TransUnion and Danaher.
