

Articles + Publications | December 17, 2021

Chicago's Julie Webb Authors Law360 Article Summarizing Recent Decision Dismissing App Developers' Antitrust Claims Against Apple

Law360

WRITTEN BY

Julie C. Webb

Julie Webb, a Partner in the Chicago office, authored a Law360 article examining a recent federal court decision dismissing app developers' antitrust claims against Apple. Webb outlines the decision, focusing on the sufficiency of allegations of market definition to state a claim for federal antitrust violations and what plaintiffs must plead to establish the existence and boundaries of a relevant market in monopolization claims.

To read the full article, click here (subscription may be required).