Troutman Pepper Locke's Albert Bates will be speaking at the Chilean Society of Construction Law's 5th International Construction Law Congress. The hybrid conference will take place from Wednesday, October 29 to Thursday, October 30 at the Universidad de los Andes in Santiago, Chile.

The Congress brings together leading practitioners from the legal, public, and private sectors to analyze the principal challenges and trends shaping the construction industry.

The two-day program features four thematic panels addressing current issues in major infrastructure projects, mining, contract management, and dispute resolution, alongside keynote speakers who will open each day with a strategic and comparative view of the sector's challenges. The Congress serves as a key forum for updating knowledge, exchanging experiences, and building networks in a highly specialized and constantly evolving industry.
