David Stauss, a partner in Troutman Pepper Locke's Privacy + Cyber Practice Group, was quoted in the August 14, 2025 CPI article, "Colorado Special Session to Consider Amendments to Landmark AI Law."

"When the bill passed two Marches ago, the big criticism was that it was an incredibly business-friendly bill," Troutman Pepper Locke Partner David Stauss told IAPP News. "After it passed, almost immediately, the startup tech community, the venture capital community, took the position that the bill was going to hurt innovation."
