With advice and counsel on matters of intellectual property and patent execution as a cornerstone of its legal practice, the law firm of Locke Lord LLP is a proud keystone donor of the 2023 Connecticut Invention Convention's Summer Camp held in a virtual format. The camp's goal is to provide a platform for young inventors from K-12 in securing their unique patents.

Lead by Gabby Gelozin and Joshua Jones' efforts and supported as part of the Firm's commitment to advance diversity in the legal industry, Locke Lord's Stamford and New York offices have donated funds and lawyers' in-person instructions to make this happen. The camp will culminate with the live showcase of the brightest young minds' innovations and provoking exhibits on August 26, hosted by the Connecticut Science Center in Hartford, CT.
