David Anthony, Alan Wingfield, and Stefanie Jackman, partners in Troutman Pepper's Consumer Financial Services Practice Group, were quoted in the January 2, 2023 Law360 article, "Consumer Protection Policy and Cases to Watch in 2023."

"The case to watch in 2023 that may have the most significant impact on consumer protection issues is the CFPB's petition for certiorari to the Supreme Court," Troutman Pepper partners David Anthony, Alan Wingfield and Stefanie Jackman said in a joint email. "If the Fifth Circuit's decision is left to stand, it will have profound implications on the validity of the CFPB's prior rulemaking and enforcement actions, and would require the Bureau to make substantial changes to its funding process that would significantly impact the way it operates moving forward."
