CHICAGO – Misha Tseytlin, leader of Troutman Pepper's Appellate + Supreme Court practice, has been named among Crain's Chicago Business' 2024 Notable Leaders in Accounting Consulting & Law. Honorees have demonstrated the power to effect change in their role and area of practice, serve as role models and mentors, and promote inclusive practices in the workplace.

Tseytlin is nationally renowned for his work in high-profile cases in administrative and political law. He has argued and won multiple cases in appellate courts across the U.S., including the U.S. Supreme Court, federal courts of appeals, state supreme courts, and state appellate courts. Notable victories include Gill v. Whitford, Murr v. Wisconsin, and Rudisill v. McDonough. He also has secured numerous favorable emergency orders from the U.S. Supreme Court on critical issues such as administrative law, political law, and the First Amendment.

Clients in regulated industries value Tseytlin's meticulous approach to bet-the-company challenges, including in the highest-stakes cases under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA). He has led and won many of the most important APA cases in the U.S. over the last decade, including lawsuits against rules and rulings issued by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).
