Wednesday, October 23 • 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. MT

Chris Carlson and Lane Page will be leading a panel discussion at the 19th Annual Credit Grantor Consortium, featuring Colorado Deputy AG Nathan Blake. The session, titled “Working with Your State Attorneys General,” will cover topics such as consumer protection priorities, monitoring procedures, enforcement actions, and common misconceptions about the role of the AG’s office. The panel will explore a range of topics, including the responsibilities and consumer protection priorities of the Colorado AG’s office, and how consumer complaints impact these priorities. They will discuss relevant consumer protection laws, debt management regulations, and mediation programs, providing valuable insights and practical advice for navigating interactions with state AGs.
