

Articles + Publications | November 12, 2025

Diddy Sentencing Tests Acquitted Conduct Guidelines Amendment

WRITTEN BY

Lawrence J. Cameron | Jaycee E. Parker

Following his acquittal on the most serious charges and conviction on lesser charges, the highly anticipated sentencing of Sean “Diddy” Combs is among the first high-profile tests of the US Sentencing Commission’s amendment to the US Sentencing Guidelines limiting the use of acquitted conduct to increase an individual’s federal sentence.

Read the full article on Bloomberg Law.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Litigation + Trial