Please join Troutman Pepper's Intellectual Property and Health Sciences Practice Group for the second season and first installment of our podcast series focused on strategy, trends, and other happenings at the PTAB.

In this episode, Troutman Pepper Partner Maia Harris moderates a lively discussion with fellow firm Partner Andrew Zappia and Associate Christina Shifton on discretionary denials under 35 USC Section 314, and what clients can expect under the new guidance.

Be on the lookout for the next episode in our podcast series.
