WASHINGTON, D.C. – The District of Columbia Courts, in partnership with the D.C. Access to Justice Commission and the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center, has named 29 Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys to the 2025 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll, which recognizes those who dedicate significant time to pro bono service.

The annual list honors attorneys who contributed at least 50 hours of pro bono work, with High Honors awarded to those who provided 100 hours or more. This year's group represents a diverse cross-section of the legal community, spanning more than 180 law firms, solo practices, government agencies, corporations, associations, nonprofit organizations, and academic institutions. The Honor Roll highlights the vital role that private and government attorneys play in providing pro bono services to those who cannot afford counsel, as well as to disadvantaged small businesses and community-based nonprofits.
