Monday, June 9 • 3:30 – 5:00 p.m. ET

Please join Eric Chapman and Scott Mills in Document Review: Privilege Protection Deep Dive. This 90-minute program will provide an in-depth exploration of the basics of privilege determinations and the impact of privilege on document review and production, with a focus on the federal rules and requirements relating to the same. Participants will discuss privilege reviews and privilege log strategies, including redacted documents, available protocols, and categorical log options.
