

Articles + Publications | May 22, 2025

DOJ's Data Security Program Is Blurry on Audits, Recordkeeping

WRITTEN BY

Peter E. Jeydel | James Koenig | David J. Navetta

Troutman Pepper Locke partners examine ambiguities in the Department of Justice's compliance guidance for its new data security program.

The Department of Justice's new data security program took effect on April 8. A few days later, the agency issued an implementation and enforcement policy that provides a 90-day leniency period for DSP civil enforcement through July 8, along with a compliance guide and frequently asked questions.

Click here to read the full article on Bloomberg Law.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Privacy + Cyber
- White Collar Litigation + Investigations