Election 2024: Threats, Myths, and What We Can Do to Protect the Vote

Wednesday, September 11 • 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. ET

This is the last session of our 3-part series. This session will examine the legal and political landscape of this presidential election cycle. Topics will include new election-related laws and legal challenges, the extensive safeguards that are put in place to secure the vote, and the threats to our elections – both real and perceived. Our panelists will share facts, debunk myths, give attendees the tools they need to identify and counter disinformation, and identify concrete ways that attendees can get involved in election protection efforts. This discussion will be non-partisan.

Panelists will be:

- Arizona Secretary of State Adrian Fontes
- Sherrilyn Ifill, Member of the ABA Task Force for American Democracy
- Benjamin Ginsberg, Member of the ABA Task Force for American Democracy

The panel will be moderated by Ben Phillips, Legal Counsel, Voting Rights and Redistricting at Campaign Legal Center.
