Thursday, February 1 • 11:30 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. ET

Troutman Pepper is proud to continue our sponsorship of the Emerald Groundhog Day Investment Forum. This year's forum will focus on the theme "The Innovation Economy," and will review new technologies and services impacting opportunities across the investment universe. The event will also feature presentations from economists and executives from domestic growth companies from key sectors and industries. Partner Peter Wakiyama will be participating in the "Innovation in Technology" panel discussion focusing on the rise of artificial intelligence.
