Troutman Pepper Locke Partner Josh Gelfand presents on a panel titled “Executive Compensation and Benefits in M&A Transactions: Foundational Frameworks” for Strafford, a BARBRI company. This CLE course will examine executive compensation and benefit plan considerations that will impact transaction-related liabilities, target values, and the long-term viability of an M&A deal. The panel will review benefits and executive compensation frameworks, highlighting where M&A risk and valuation complications most often arise, and strategies to help avoid pre- and post-closing issues.
