The Consumer Financial Services Law Monitor blog post "President Trump Issues Executive Order 14406 to Restore Integrity to America's Financial System" written by Keith Barnett, Lori Sommerfield, Chris Willis, Carlin McCrory, and Lane Page was cited in the July 13, 2026 Briefs Finance article, "Federal Watchdogs Call for Enhanced Vetting of Mortgages for Undocumented Borrowers."

According to a recent analysis by Troutman Pepper Locke, the May executive order does not require financial institutions to verify every customer's immigration status; rather, it promotes a risk-based strategy and instructs regulators to take specific supervisory steps.
