Toyja Kelley will serve as a panelist at the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel: Insurance Industry Institute on November 8-10, 2023, in New York. Toyja's panel will discuss "Explosive Rise of Nuclear Verdicts: Identifying Potential Triggers, Managing Risks & Controlling Outcomes" on November 10 at 11:05 am.

Nuclear verdicts have been a growing concern for insurance professionals, defense lawyers, and risk managers. The pre-Covid increase in such verdicts has escalated at a rapid pace in the last three years. This panel, consisting of professionals in public policy, claims professionals, and defense counsel, will discuss the trends and factors that contribute to nuclear verdicts, particular jurisdictions of concern, the techniques to identify high risk claims, effective management risky claims, and the psychology of the modern juror.

The Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel, composed of recognized leaders in the legal community who have achieved professional distinction, is dedicated to promoting knowledge, fellowship, and professionalism of its members as they pursue the course of a balanced justice system and represent those in need of a defense in civil lawsuits.
