Bradley Weber, a co-leader of Troutman Pepper Locke's Antitrust Practice Group, was quoted in the May 30, 2025 National Law Journal article, "FTC's Merger Settlement Signals Its Willingness to Negotiate, Structure Approval, Lawyers Say."

"This is a clear invitation that parties will have a willing party to talk about possible, especially structural, remedies that might be able to resolve concerns that the FTC has," said Troutman Pepper Locke partner Brad Weber.

Weber said he would warn clients during the Khan years that deals—even with minimal competition concerns—might bring a second request or enforcement action from the FTC.
