Tuesday, April 1 • 1:30 – 6:30 p.m. ET

Troutman Pepper Locke is a proud sponsor of Georgetown's Research and Innovation Showcase 2025 in Washington, D.C. from 1:30 – 6:30 p.m. ET.

The Office of Technology Commercialization, in collaboration with Georgetown Entrepreneurship Initiative, is excited to announce the first Research and Innovation Showcase event. This half-day celebration will highlight discoveries, celebrate innovation, feature new ventures, and connect academia with industry and investors. The event includes research presentations, an industry panel discussion, and a venture fair presenting new, exciting entrepreneurial companies and teams from the Georgetown community.
