

Georgia Gov. Appoints Troutman Pepper Partner David Dove to Board of Regents

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

David B. Dove

RELATED OFFICES

Atlanta

ATLANTA – David Dove, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Regulatory Investigations, Strategy + Enforcement Practice, has been appointed by Georgia Governor Brian P. Kemp to serve as the Eleventh Congressional District Representative on the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. The Board of Regents works to keep higher education affordable, accommodate growth in student enrollment, and ensure that students play an active role in research that benefits the state.

Dove was recently recognized by the University of Georgia Alumni Association with a Young Alumni Award for his outstanding leadership and service to the university, community, and legal profession. He remains highly engaged with his alma mater, serving as chairman of the Alumni Board of Directors for its School of Public and International Affairs and as a board member for the Law School Alumni Council. He also serves as an adjunct professor of law.

Dove has broad leadership experience at the highest levels of state government. He previously served as executive counsel to Gov. Kemp, interim director of the Georgia Environmental Protection Division, and as a lead attorney on Georgia's tri-state water wars.

At Troutman Pepper, Dove leads the Regulatory + Economic Investment Practice in Georgia, an interdisciplinary team that counsels clients on a range of legal and public policy matters. He helps clients advance their business objectives and resolve regulatory hurdles, particularly as they relate to environmental, health care, and tax issues as well as economic investment.

Troutman Pepper's nationally recognized Regulatory Investigations, Strategy + Enforcement (RISE) Practice Group, counsels clients in a wide range of legal and public policy matters. For businesses in heavily regulated industries, the team offers guidance on compliance and reporting as well as, when necessary, litigation and administrative appeals of regulatory enforcement actions. The team also partners with businesses and industry groups to work proactively on legislative strategy, state attorneys general interactions, and the regulatory rulemaking process.

About Troutman Pepper

Troutman Pepper is a national law firm with 1,100+ attorneys strategically located in more than 20 U.S. cities. The firm's litigation, transactional, and regulatory practices advise a diverse client base, from startups to multinational enterprises. The firm provides sophisticated legal solutions to clients' most pressing business challenges, with depth across industry sectors, including energy, financial services, health sciences, insurance, and private equity, among others. Learn more at troutman.com.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Economic Development
- Government + Regulatory
- Government + Regulatory Litigation
- Regulatory Investigations, Strategy + Enforcement