Tuesday, June 11 • 9:45 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. CT

Troutman Pepper Partners Callan G. Stein and Michael S. Lowe, along with Associate Christopher M. Brolley will be presenting on “Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) in College Athletics: Current Rules for Educational Institutions and What Is Likely to Come Next,” during the Higher Education & Healthcare Research Compliance Conference, on Tuesday, June 11, 2024, at 9:45 a.m., in New Orleans. The session will:

- Identify current NCAA guidance and state laws governing NIL and their impact on educational institutions’ NIL compliance risks and responsibilities.
- Provide an understanding of the current state of NCAA and state attorneys general NIL enforcement activity, and discuss likely enforcement trends to come in 2024 and beyond.
- Evaluate current/future NIL compliance challenges for educational institutions, risk mitigation strategies, and other NIL compliance best practices.

Callan Stein will also be delivering a second presentation, titled “Considerations in Building and Implementing an Effective Research Security Compliance Program,” at 1:00 p.m. The key points will include:

- Understanding current guidance on NSPM-33 and OSTP Research Security Standards.
- Identifying and addressing operational challenges to maintaining Research Security Standards compliance.
- Mitigating legal exposure for investigators/institutions by implementing an effective Research Security compliance program.
